

Luu Receives College of American Pathologists 2022 President's Honors Award

Dr. Hung S. Luu is a recipient of the College of American Pathologists 2022 President's Honors award. This award was presented by Dr. Emily Volk, president of the College of American Pathologists, on October 9, 2022, at the CAP22 annual meeting. Dr. Luu was recognized for his work representing the CAP in government initiatives promoting laboratory data interoperability. The President's Honors award recognizes individuals for providing extraordinary service and valued counsel to the president of the College of American Pathologists during their presidency.

Congratulations, Dr. Luu!
