

Starting University Clinical Careers Efficiently, Scholarly, and Successfully

Getting Your Medical Education Published

Rachel Bonnema, M.D., M.S.

Distinguished Teaching Professor,
Professor of Internal Medicine,
General Internal Medicine

Objectives

- Identify topic area for scholarship
- Cultivate strategies to combat barriers to scholarship
- Initiate steps towards building scholarship portfolio

Clinician Educator Goal

Idea

Project

Publication

Inventory of Daily Work...

Education or Clinical topics of interest

- Topic you routinely teach (or struggle with)
- Present clinical topic or “best/novel approach to teaching...”

Project in Progress?

- Assigned lecture or curriculum

Program/Campus need

- EBM, Health Systems science; Clinical partnerships

Mentor you want to work with

Scholarship

- Curriculum development
- Education research
- Writing/presenting on:
 - Clinical skills
 - Teaching
 - Professional Development
- CME on teaching/education
- Invited lectures

- Consider scholarship from the start
- Reserve time/know deadlines
- Create annual productivity goals

BEGIN WITH THE END IN MIND

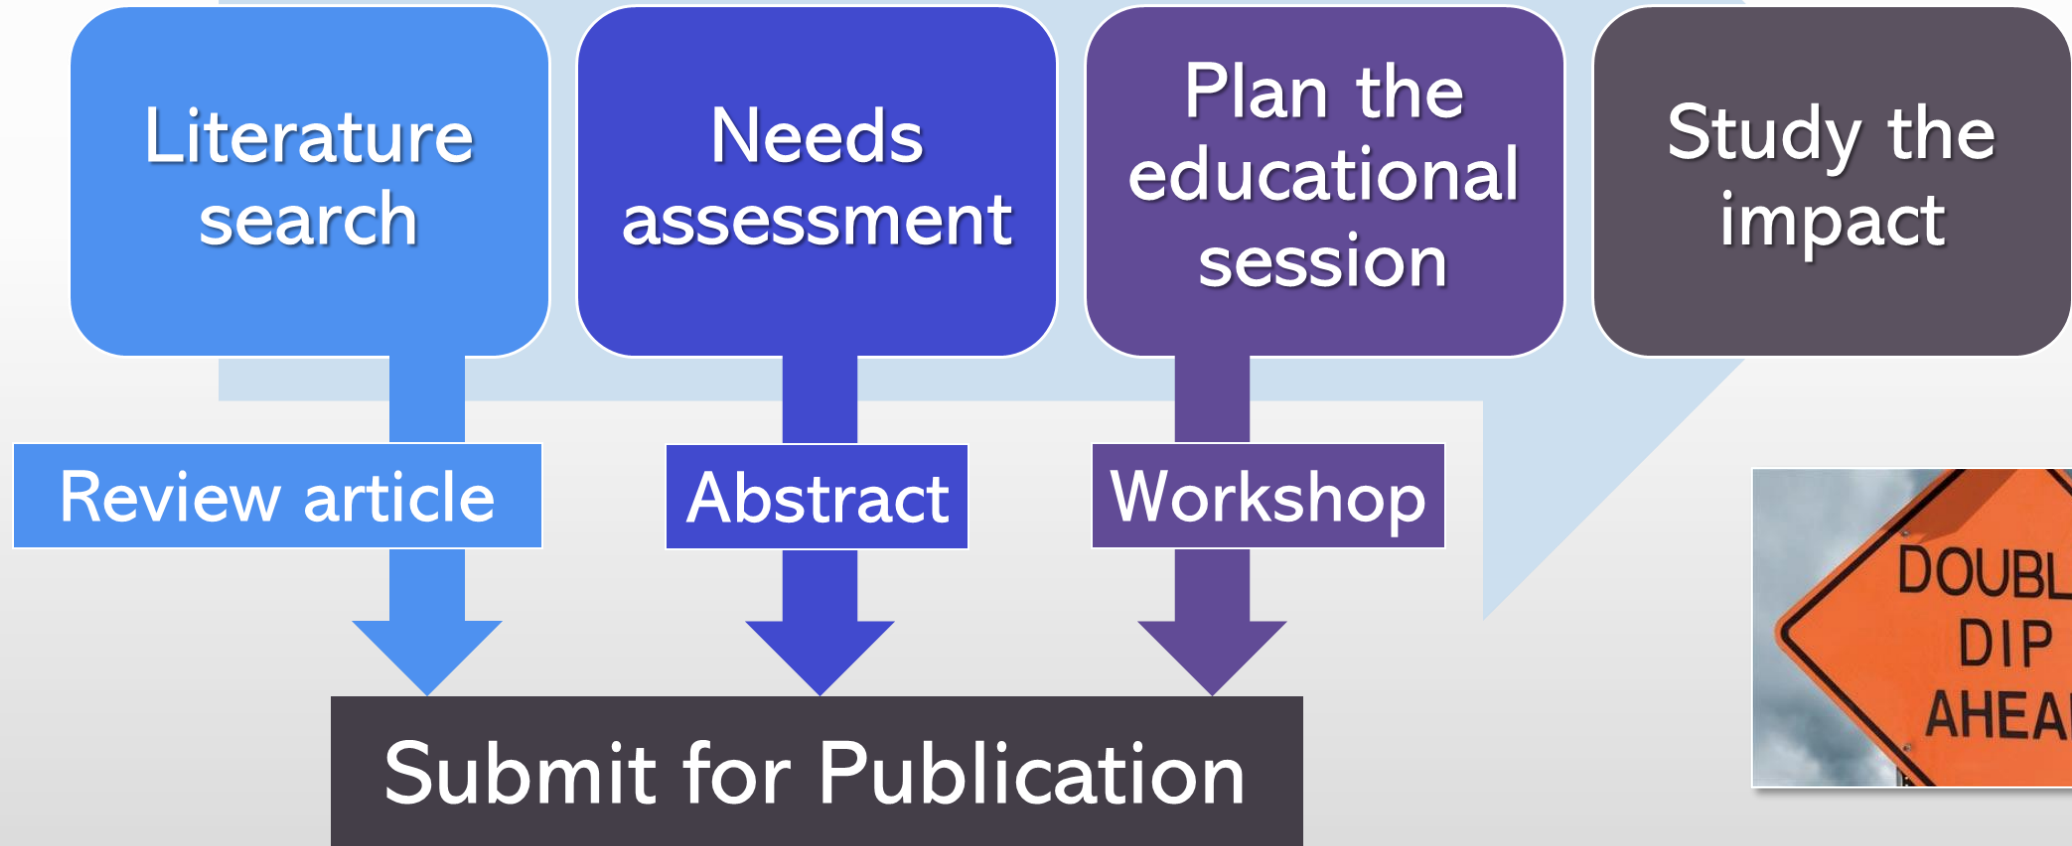

STEPHEN COVEY

Make it count twice...or more

A simplistic approach to Scholarship

Find and build your team

Meaningful Collaboration

- Doing the work well, on time, builds a network of trusted colleagues

- Say yes to activities that align with career goals
 - Ask for help in determining alignment
- Preserve your admin time
- Break down tasks
- Remember the Double Dip!

Example Venues to Disseminate

Education vs Clinically focused meeting

Abstract (poster: innovation vs research)

Workshop (peer-reviewed, usually education meetings)

Local

- Department
- WISMAC
- SWAT

Regional

- Society meeting
- Shine Academy
- AAMC (SGEA)

National

- Educational meetings
- Professional societies
- ACGME
- AAMC

Venues to Disseminate

Publication

- Med Ed Portal
- JGME
- Medical Education
- Medical Teacher
- Teaching and Learning in Medicine
- Education journal in your field
- Academic Medicine

- Specialty society journal
- Southern Medical Journal
- Cleveland Clinic Journal of Medicine (clinical reviews)

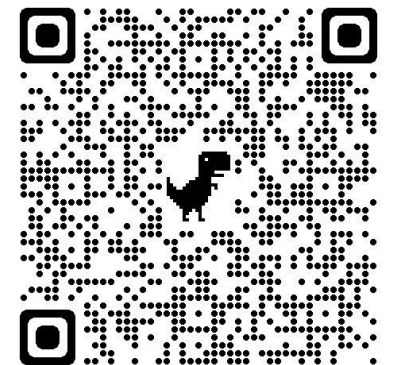

Mentor can help guide journal choice...also consider:

Librarian

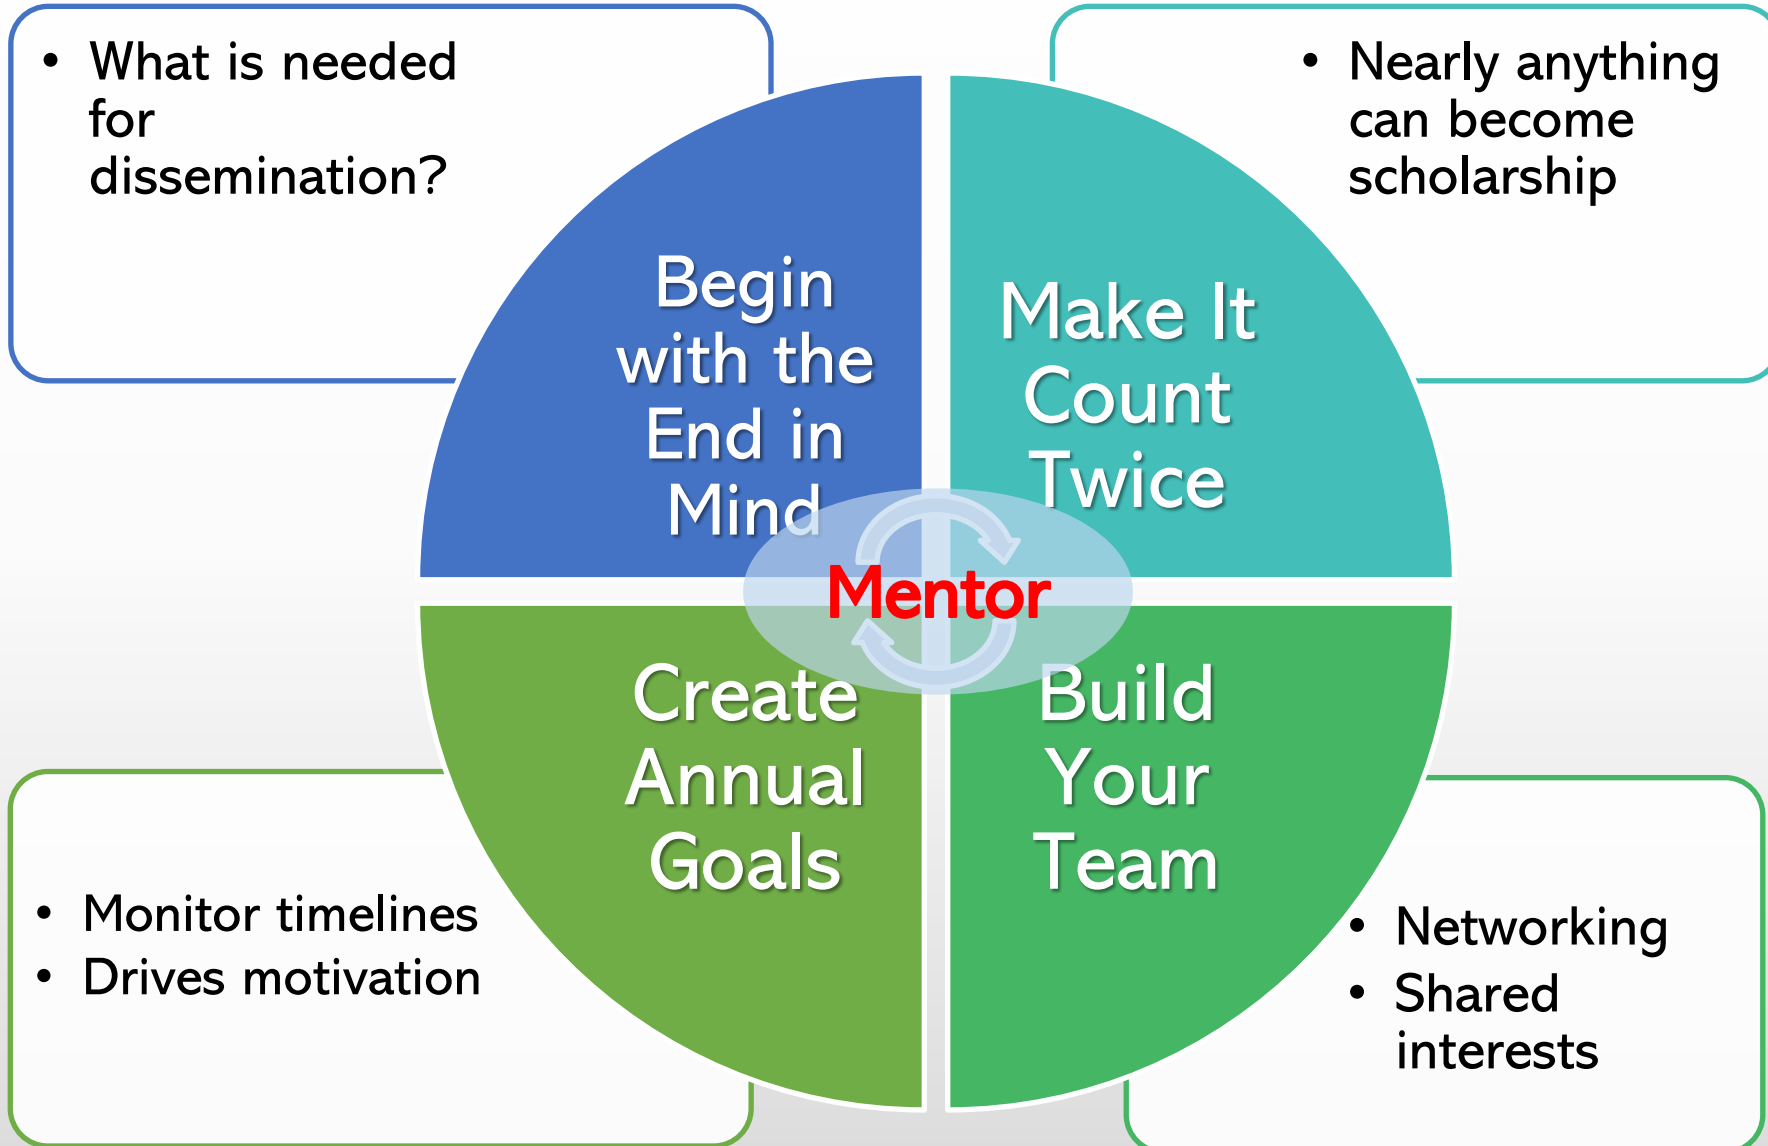

Literature review

Content area

(i.e., Primary Care, Health Policy)

Scholarship for Clinician Educator

Starting University Clinical Careers Efficiently, Scholarly, and Successfully

Rachel Bonnema, M.D.
Professor, Internal Medicine
Rachel.Bonnema@
UTSouthwestern.edu