

Postdoctoral Training Position Available

Metabolic defense mechanisms

The laboratory of Dr. Sarah Huen is seeking a highly motivated, hard-working postdoctoral fellow to join our team in the Department of Pharmacology at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas. We are seeking a postdoctoral fellow with a background in microbiology, organismal or cellular metabolism, and/or kidney biology. This training position will support research related to metabolic fuel utilization during infection/inflammation or tissue injury at a systemic or organ/cellular level. The Huen laboratory has several exciting projects investigating the role of metabolic programs as defense mechanisms in the context of inflammation and tissue injury.

Candidates must hold a recent Ph.D. and/or M.D. degree. Prior experience with one or more of the following areas including mouse models, metabolism, microbiology, molecular biology and/or biochemistry leading to publication in peer-reviewed journals will be highly regarded.

Information on our postdoctoral training program, benefits, and a virtual tour can be found at <http://www.utsouthwestern.edu/postdocs>.

Interested individuals should send a CV, a statement of research interests and career goals, and a list of three references to:
